ITS JUNIOR SCHOOL MIGHT BE NESTLED IN BELGRAVIA, BUT EATON SQUARE SENIORS SITS PROUDLY ON PICCADILLY IN MAYFAIR.

The school is known to balance academic success alongside skills that prepare students for the real world. With a flexible curriculum, this encourages students to have more choice and flexibility to study the combination of subjects to help them achieve their future aspirations.

Headteacher, Caroline Townshend, says: "Eaton Square Senior School pupils are incredibly privileged to enjoy their education from a truly unique, inspiring and historic location. Our beautiful Grade I-listed building overlooks Green Park and was once a family house, reflecting our ethos as our school environment very much has a family feel to it.

"As a small, non-academically selective school, pupil wellbeing is our priority. It forms the foundation for achieving potential in all areas of school life. Our in-house Leadership and Preparation for Life programmes sit proudly alongside our academic offering to ensure we develop each individual to become the best-possible versions of themselves.

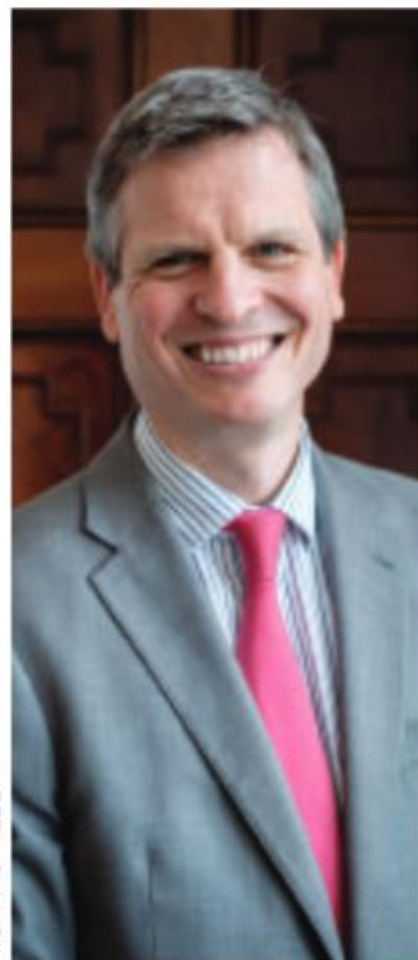

"It is our aim that pupils leave Eaton Square with a strong set of values and the drive to make a positive change in the world."

A Sixth Form information evening is taking place on September 28 to provide information on the new sixth-form opening in September 2022, with a Q&A and talks by the headteacher and Dukes Education.

An open morning is also taking place on October 7.

He says: "I'm a history and politics teacher. The idea of being somewhere that's such a ground-breaking institution in women's education was very appealing to me.

I love the size of Queen's – it's small enough that I can know every child and most of the families. It is also big enough that it has huge

“OUR SIXTH FORM IS CLEARLY DISTINGUISHED FROM BOTH AN INDEPENDENT SIXTH FORM COLLEGE AND FROM A SCHOOL. INSTEAD, IT PIONEERS THE BENEFITS OF BOTH: BALANCING THE PASTORAL FOCUS AND ACADEMIC FRAMEWORK OF SCHOOL LIFE WITH THE ACUTE KNOWLEDGE THAT SIXTH FORM PUPILS MERIT GREATER INDEPENDENCE AND OWNERSHIP OF THEIR EDUCATIONAL JOURNEY.”
